

SCIENTIFIC INSIGHTS

A new informal lunchtime talk series presented by scientists at Westlakes Research Institute tackling new areas of science in the health, environment and policy arenas.

FORWARD PROGRAMME

---

Wednesday 31st May 2006 @ 1230 hrs

Minimising Risk: A Geophysical perspective

Dr. Aaron Lockwood, Environmental Consultant, Environmental Science, WSC

Wednesday 28th June @ 1230 hrs

Ecosystem assessments – developing the international framework
(insights from the IAEA and the ICRP)

Dr. Jordi Vives-Battle, Senior Scientist, Environmental Science, WSC

Wednesday 12th July 2006 @ 1230 hrs

Information Systems: Managing the Legacy

Andrew Wilson, Technical Support Manager, IT and Programming, WSC

Wednesday 26th July 2006 @ 1230 hrs

SEP Area Emissions: Meeting regulatory requirements

Dr. Richard Hill, Head of Air Pollution Group, Environmental Science, WSC

Wednesday 6th September 1230 hrs

Integrated Employee Health Management Systems

Sheila Jones, Senior Consultant, WSC

Wednesday 20th September @ 1230 hrs

How high are the stakes? Nuclear stakeholder Relations

Rick Wylie, Lecturer/Researcher, WSC

Wednesday 4th October @ 1230 hrs

Environmental sampling – innovative techniques or clutching at straws?

Dr. Steve Bradley, Principal/Chief Executive, WRI/WSC