

SCIENCE INSIGHTS

A programme of informal talks presented by active researchers, including staff at the University of Central Lancashire (UCLan) and its Westlakes Research Institute, addressing issues of current concern in sustainability, the environment, the energy sector and health.

Forward Programme – Spring/Summer 2009

---

Thursday 9th April 2009 @ 1215 – 13.00 hrs

Climate Change in a Risk Society

Rick Wylie - Senior Lecturer and Strategy Coordinator, UCLan

Friday 24th April 2009 @ 1215 – 13.00 hrs

Society and Sustainability in the Siting of Radioactive Waste

Stephen Haraldsen - Researcher and Strategy Implementation, UCLan

Friday 5th June 2009 @1215 – 1300 hrs

Engaging With Internal Stakeholders to Support Change Management: Lessons from the NHS

Glen Howard - ICT Care Record Change Manager, United Lincolnshire Hospitals NHS Trust

Friday 26th June 2009 @ 1215 – 13.00 hrs

Protecting Wildlife from Ionising radiation: Is it the Individual or the Population that Matters?

Richard C. Wilson – Senior Consultant, Westlakes Scientific Consulting Limited

Friday 10th July 2009 @ 1215 – 13.00 hrs

Health Impacts Relating to Radiation Exposure in West Cumbria

Steve Whaley – Senior Statistician, Westlakes Scientific Consulting Limited

Friday 21st August 2009 @ 1215 – 13.00hrs

Wind Tunnel Modelling: How it can help Engineers and Scientists?

Alistair Arnott – Environmental Consultant, Westlakes Scientific Consulting Limited